

One department.
Millions of charts.
Infinite demands.

Supporting multiple departments

HIM Director | Making it Humanly Possible

As a Director of HIM, the issues you deal with every day are many—and growing. Answering physician complaints about transcription quality and turnaround time. Ensuring the productivity of medical transcription staff. Doing all of this while continually seeking ways to reduce costs.

Your challenges are further complicated by being asked to support multiple products for different departments.

At 3M Health Information Systems, we understand “what keeps you up at night.” We know you are doing all you can to balance your department’s daily activities and champion your organization’s patient care records and documentation. Our goal is to help you do even more—for your care providers and the patients they serve.
